Henry Kissinger has revealed that the establishment aka 'the Illuminists' - NWO/Globalists, etc are squarely behind and fully supportive of Barack Obama as President of the United States. In fact, they may portray him as their "messiah" - although I have serious doubts about that. I'm more inclined to think he's going to be a 'sacrificial lamb' for their establishment of a New World Order. Keep in mind that some researchers into the Illuminati have hypothesized that Kissinger actually is the Top Man in the Inner Council of 13 - the highest human entity on earth that answers directly to Lucifer, whom they worship as being their creator. Whether or not Kissinger is the head master of the council or on that committee or on some such lower echelon, I do not know. I can only pass along what I've read and heard.

I do know that in my brief exposure to the higher echelons of Washington powers, Kissinger was highly regarded and respected if not highly revered.

As such, Henry popped up recently on the NBC cable TV business network CNBC, appearing on the daily morning show "The Squawk Box" with hosts Mark Haines and Erin Burnett at the New York Stock Exchange.

Burnett asked Kissinger what international conflict would define the Obama administration's foreign policy. His response:

"The president-elect is coming into office at a moment when there is upheaval in many parts of the world simultaneously," Kissinger responded. "You have India, Pakistan; you have the jihadist movement. So he can't really say there is one problem, that it's the most important one. But he can give new impetus to American foreign policy partly because the reception of him is so extraordinary around the world. His task will be to develop an overall strategy for America in this period when, really, a new world order can be created. It's a great opportunity, it isn't just a crisis."
